

SYMPOSIUM ON MEDIA AND FORCED MIGRATION

PARIS, MAY 15TH 2019

AGENDA

Time
9:00	Welcome and Introductions
9:15	Tristan Mattelart: Media and forced migration: Promises and pitfalls of an emerging research field
10:00	Lilie Chouliaraki and Myria Georgiou: The digital border
10:45	Coffee break
11:00	Marína Urbániková and Michal Tkaczyk: Strangers ante portas : News coverage of the European refugee and migrant crisis in the Czech broadsheet daily newspapers
11:45	Mattias Ekman: “Refugees not welcome”: Anti-immigration strategies and online publics
12:30	Lunch
2.00	Koen Leurs: Connectivity compulsion: forced migration and the emotional digital labor of transnational connection
2:45	Kevin Smets: Immobility and media: Refugee-centred perspectives on media and migration
3:30	Coffee break
3:45	Péter Bajomi-Lázár: An anti-migration campaign on Hungarian State media and its impact upon the public mind
4:30	Pierluigi Musarò: “Aware Migrants”: The compassionate side of the tentative to deter irregular migration
5:15	Concluding Discussion and Next Steps
6:00	Finish

University of Paris 2, 92 rue d’Assas, 75006 Paris